

Source: thesundaytimes February 8, 2015

ST PHOTO: LM SIN THAI

Festive air to SPH music series

The strains of Chinese favourites such as the bustling Spring Festival Overture, Full Moon Blossoms and even the evergreen hits of late singer Teresa Teng filled the heartland around Yishun Ring Road yesterday.

Around 700 people turned up for the Singapore Chinese Orchestra (SCO) concert, which was led by assistant conductor Moses Gay.

The concert is part of SPH Gift of Music – SCO Community Series, which is supported by the Singapore Press Holdings (SPH) under the SPH Gift of Music Series.

Mr Gay will conduct the SCO again today at 7.30pm at Ang Mo Kio Central Stage. Admission is free.

Carolyn Khew